About Me

With a solid academic foundation in business studies evidenced by exceptional SPM results and a diploma with a CGPA of 3.49, I am now advancing my expertise in finance through my Bachelor's degree. My educational journey is complemented by my active involvement in course-related clubs, having served as an executive committee member for D'BES and currently excelling in a similar role with BAFIN, the finance students' club.

I aim to forge a career in the business and finance sector, leveraging my analytical skills and financial knowledge to contribute effectively to an organization's success. I have honed my leadership abilities and teamwork skills, preparing me for the collaborative and dynamic nature of the finance industry. I am keen to apply my learned principles in a practical setting, aspiring to be part of a team where I can further refine my competencies and support business growth.
